Proverbs 10:25

When the whirlwind passes by, the wicked is no more, But the righteous has an everlasting foundation.

On the same day, when evening had come, He said to them, "Let us cross over to the other side."

Now when they had left the multitude, they took Him along in the boat as He was. And other little boats were also with Him.

And a great windstorm arose, and the waves beat into the boat, so that it was already filling.

But He was in the stern, asleep on a pillow. And they awoke Him and said to Him, "Teacher, do You not care that we are perishing?"

Then He arose and rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, "Peace, be still!" And the wind ceased and there was a great calm.

But He said to them, "Why are you so fearful? How is it that you have no faith?"

And they feared exceedingly, and said to one another, "Who can this be, that even the wind and the sea obey Him!"

- 1. Refusing to assume God doesn't care for and love you
- 2. Refusing to agree with the worse case scenario as final authority
- 3. Exercising spiritual authority over the storm
- Realize there are many great ministry opportunities on the other side of the storm

From the end of the earth I will cry to You, When my heart is overwhelmed; Lead me to the rock that is higher than I.

Anxiety in the heart of man causes depression, But a good word makes it glad.

Philippians 4:6

Be anxious for nothing, but in everything by prayer and supplication, with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known to God:

Philippians 4:7

and the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.
