Matthew 5:6

This week
is a week
of blessing.

Matthew 5:6

Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness: for they shall be filled.

Do

what God

tells you to do.

Righteousness =

being in

right-standing

with God.

Everything we do
is out of
relationship:
because we love Him.

Hungry means
to lay it all on the altar,
not care
what people think & just invite God to do whatever he wants to do.

When you get filled up with the things of God, you won't
thirst for the things of the world.

Don't be a cause of another person dying
and going to Hell
because you decided to live however you
wanted.

Are you hungry
and thirsty for
the things
of God?

How about
the fire
of God?

The faith walk
we have with God is a very exciting walk.

There's

no deadness,

no tiredness,

no boredom.

Church's that don't have that, end up
closing down
evening services &
people watch football instead.

We should see miracles daily
from the Body of Christ.

If Christ

returned tonight,

would you

be left?
